

"Creepy" sexual attractions

Posted by Human being - 02 Dec 2022 06:55

DISCLAIMER! This post in no way shape or form is encouraging those with "alt' feelings to be complaisant, and just accept themselves. When I say we need to accept ourselves, it doesn't mean you don't need help.

DISCLAIMER! If there is any reason to believe you may need assistance controlling your desires, GET HELP. Don't be ashamed, we don't choose our feelings. You a human being who deserves love, respect, concern, safety, acceptance and support just like the rest of us. Most of us with "alt" desires have a history of challenges that deserves and sometimes mandates reaching out.

So many of us humans have desires that we think "aren't regular/common and retarded to have".

I've met and spoke to so many people who are attracted to so many different things. Teens, ssa, older people, specific looking boys, specific looking girls, children (I've never met anyone personally but its definitely out there, as i will bring in the links and foot notes in the next post) an age group of boys, an age group of girls, specific nationality's, tall, short random fetishes, fake and fantasy fetishes too. In other words every different type of thing on the planet.

Thing is, it seems from my various conversations and interactions here on gye and in general, that many of us feel like we are hiding "a really bad secret" of "really disturbing feelings and desires" that cannot under any circumstances be talked about or shared, for fear of us "creeps" getting "exposed" .

Let me tell everyone a secret..... they are regular and common feelings and desires, we are just embarrassed to share them. We hide them, squash them and make believe they don't exist for fear of someone "exposing us".

Yes, you got it right. Random/weird/unique sexual fantasies are common human feelings/desires. Fetishes, Pedophilia (sexual attraction to prepubescents (less common, but your not alone)), hemophilia (sexual attraction to post-pubescent teens ages 11-14), SSA, Various specific attractions, and ephebophilia (sexual attraction to teenagers), are COMMON FEELINGS. Its common to FEEL that way. Its NOT OK to ACT that way. I'm not saying its the norm. I'm just saying its not out of the norm and unexpected. So is various random fetishes and fantasies. Yes "THAT" included. (whatever your "THAT" may be.) Your not creepy or a molester.

I personally am attracted to only teenagers, (boys or girls) (ephebophilia). It is not "retarded and creepy that im attracted to them" It would be creepy if i acted on my desire. I am not bad, crazy, weird, or "an other" Not the norm, but not crazy or inherent pervert.

We are just scared to share our feelings and desires because were scared of people thinking we are creeps/molesters etc. You are NOT a creep/molester if you have these FEELINGS or DESIRES. A molester is someone who ACTS on his feelings or desires.

You are normal and healthy person with some unhealthy parts of you. You deserve to be loved and cared about and embraced and respected and looked up to, you can be a counselor, go to the mikveh, hug your kids, kiss your kids, pat your camper on the back. (If you need help controlling your desires/feelings, or you feel that going to the mikveh or patting your campers on your back-will cause your desires/feelings to be aroused or triggered within you- and you don't know how to regulate those unhealthy feelings/desires in a healthy way- then please do not go to mikvah or touch those that can trigger you. But there's nothing for you to be ashamed about. We don't choose our feelings and desires.) Relax about being "exposed" breath easy, share yourself with your wife, with your friends, with yourself. -if you share your feelings, you have way way way less of a chance of acting on them. Share your feelings, be open be honest, get help. Reach out. Your loved. While your a part of you may not be "normal", YOU are normal and healthy and theres nothing to be ashamed about.

Please, chime in everyone!

This is a very very good article to read about pedophilia, which is the most "extreme" of the desires we are discussing on this thread. The entire website can help those that don't understand what "normalizing pedophilia" really means. Hint; it means normalizing and accepting people. To those who would rather not see another post on this topic, I feel you. But I felt I needed to give a resource for those that would like to learn more. Or who need to reach out.

if there is an article that normalizes beastility do i have to read that too?

i really hate to bring this to this holy website, but for the sake of clarity, ...there is a fetish for dead bodies, i personally don't subscribe to that, are we going to normalize that? shouldn't we just call a spade a spade? i really don't mean to hurt anyone's feelings if they have desires for things other than an adult (living) human female, i just think we should normalize the nature of a person to think or desire contrary thoughts, like to look over the ledge of a skyscraper and desire to jump. but the desire to jump is unfortunately not normal.

And I spoke with Eerie this afternoon. It didn't take him more than five minutes to determine that I am definitely not normal. (The fact that he still continued on may be an indicator about him, but who am I to judge?)

After the release of a certain series of books and later movies bent on normalizing certain things, the acceptance and prevalence of certain violent fetishes has boomed in popularity. But anyone who gets sexual satisfaction out of either side of the equation isn't normal either. Although many people now engage in such things (And I say this as someone who still has and definitely has had and indulged in some VERY sick fetishes) in a vidui we say O' Hashem i sinned by hateing what you love, and loveing what you hate (vidui of Rav Nisin Goan ?)

it seems that desireing what Hahem hates is a sin.

I'm not sure if I understand your question, but I don't see any connection to "loving what you hate" to accepting "creepy" attractions and thoughts. Loving what you hate means loving to do averios. That has no connection to attractions and thoughts that pop in peoples head. If the thought to speak loshon horah pops in my head and I stopped myself, it doesn't mean I love speaking loshon horah. It's using my bechriah to choose good. I don't need to do say viduy simply because I had the thought. People are not malkim. Someone with creepy attractions is no different. I mentioned this in my previous post, but replace creepy thought with married women. G-d hates zinus with a married women. If a man finds a married women attractive do you think he should say viduy? He desires what G-d hates.

just for the record, Hashem hates zenus with an unmarried woman as well

ELOKEYHEM SHEL EYLOO SONEI ZIMAH HU

Exactly. Thank you for proving my point. You are normal as it shows clearly below. You just like everyone else i argue with, believ since something is unhealthy or not wanted, we are supposed to not accept that part of ourselves and instead cacgate it as "not normal". For you you call the part of you that wants to watch porn/masturbate "not normal, and others call other unwanted desires the same thing, not normal. Even though what they really mean is "unhealthy. thanks for proving me right. Because on this no-one can argue, watching porn is normal, masturbating is normal. It is unhealthy. It is not wanted. It is negative. But normal it is.

-In 2018, there were 109,012,068,000 videos watched on ____, – more than 14 videos per person on the planet"

-Today, porn sites receive more website traffic in the U.S. than Twitter, Instagram, TikTok, Netflix, Pinterest, and Zoom combined.?

There are numerous more statistics. Feel free to do your own research. but be careful, it can be triggering.

Let me ask you an interesting question. Do you think Hashem wants you to be "thinking your not normal"?

Is that helping you shtieg?

In other words, its for hashem? or is it for you to feel better about yourself? Why you telling yourself you not normal?

Did you read the article? it seems from this response that you haven't. You are mistaken. Although I don't blame you. Many other people also misunderstand what "normalizing pedophilia" means. I'm not going to get into why so many people make the mistake your making. That's a different conversation. ---You are referring to "normalizing pedophilia" as 'normalizing child sexual abuse' When we say "normalizing pedophilia", it is referring to the person and his desire. Not normalizing child sexual abuse.

Id love for those responding to first read the article. if you have, my apologies.

I haven't because my filter doesn't allow it. However, if you can show me that the overwhelming majority of sexual studies proffesors now will say that one who ENGAGES [yes, engages] in hardcore BDSM is an indicator he should seek help, I'd be surprised. Because it's been so thouroughly normalized that it's now looked at as nothing wrong to act upon either. Just sexual activity (actually violence) between 2 consenting adults. For the same reason (completion of the process of normilization) Trans- questioning youth mostly suffering from the social contagion are referred to psychiatrists not for treatment but to be put on the track of irreversible hormones and mutilation. As society goes through the normalization process, the thought then arises that treatment must be different, open, and accepting as well. From there the short jump is soon made to changing treatment into all-out acceptance of the "fact": he's a she.

Many of these same sex professors, it should be noted, have no problem with 5 year olds decididing they're non-binary. If they can make that dtermination at that age, why can't they consent to sex? So expose them to drag shows as early as possible. Then eliminate statutory rape. Then eliminate molestation as a special catergy of crime.(These are all steps that have been pushed for by advocates calling for MAPS to replace pedophile designation.) I have also put up a comment on something that's been on my mind on this topic basically since the beginning. It's on my thread: guardyoureyes.com/forum/19-Introduce-Yourself/375514-Enough-is-Enough?limit=15&start=30#390358
