JK!!! :D :D

just wanted to start another thread...

NOT!!!

well, i guess if it makes you laugh,

whatever works.

i think officially, college is for more of a defined vocation, whereas university is an institution that can include colleges and other institutions within...

really, in places outside of the US, yes, they exist,

a lot of post high school programs are referred to as uni, university, universita, etc...

and we should all go do our work,

but maybe this is included in our work,

ya know, that whole avodas Hashem thing

oh, and when ppl ask questions, it usually shows that they care, so don't stop sis, k?

i can take a guess...

i has to do with these posts "breaking free"

can you guess?

jk... maybe R' Guard is really a practical joker. and he wants to see how long it will take you to catch on to what he's doing... is that it?

Re: fresh start

Posted by Sturggle - 30 Dec 2009 17:13

and when i catch on it's going to stop?

does he want me to leave?

and did you notice that some of the posts disappeared entirely?

or maybe they're just hiding on some other topic board in the forum...

Re: fresh start

Posted by habib613 - 30 Dec 2009 17:14

hmmm...

that's a good question.

i don't want you to disappear.

maybe you need a new account...

Re: fresh start

Posted by Sturggle - 30 Dec 2009 17:17

how would that work?

i mean, you've been on the same account for how long?

i don't know if i want a new account...

Re: fresh start

Posted by habib613 - 30 Dec 2009 17:20

try it.

make a new account, and if it doesn't work, forget about that.

if it does, see if you want to switch or not.

you can have the same name still
