GYE Bar Mitzva. All are invited!

Posted by the.guard - 31 Dec 2009 21:36

Hi Everybody, sorry I haven't been posting as much lately. I'm making Bar Mitzva for my Bechor this Shabbos and things have been a bit hectic. I know I really shouldn't have a life besides ;D

MAZAL TOV.

My blessing to him is, may he find Hashem on his own and never need GYE or the addiction to GYE, but what can you do?

mazel tov! where is it being held?

Seriously, I have no doubt that the entire forum will be there in spirit! I certainly will.

Mazal Tov also to the honored grandparents, Dr. and Mrs. Sidney Guard! ;D

It's a virtual invitation!

Or, did Guard tell me that his dad was a medical doctor?

I think I resolved the mystery, by the way. His name is Phillip, but he lives in Sydney, Australia!

Warmest and Heartiest Mazal Tov!!!!

Holy Guard If I would come to the Bar Mitzvah you probably would ask me to say a few words (they always do :D :D ;D ;D ;D) here is what i will say:

why is it that we call it a Bar Mitzvah- literally a "son of a mitzvah" as opposed to a baal aveira?

answered the holy Chofetz Chaim:

"baal" in lashon hakodesh can also mean a husband, a husband can get rid of his wife by granting her a divorce.

so too an aveirah we can get rid of it by divorcing it, thru tshuvah on the other hand a son can never ever be divorced from his father the same goes with a mitzvah, we are always a "bar mitzvah" we can never get rid of the relationship to Our Father that we create when we do a Mitzvah.

may the Bar Mitzvah Bucher grow up to be a true "Bar Mitzvah" and become a great mezakeh es harabim like his holy father!!!

Well said, LM!

Guard, Mazal Tov - may your son love being a part of klal yisroel as much as you do, have as great a drive to help others in gashmiyus and ruchniyus, and may he always, always feel the joy of growing!

IT25 - this IS the bar mitzvah!

Woodford reserve - where's YOUR mustache?

Mazel-tov Reb Guard and to your son who has a gadol-b'Yisroel as his father- a nistar, an anonymous giant who is helping Hashem's children be shomer habris, the foundation of everything else.

I love you very much.
