I got to try out in real time, and it is currently working wonders. There is a wonderful person here who has been doing his own work of spreading awareness of what GYE has to offer. He's been doing so in BMG. And got over 20 calls from people wanting to know more. A few days ago a guy called, but this was someone who our tzaddik was uncomfortable speaking to. He asked me if I could call this yungerman back. Which I did. I got to know a really special yungerman, a real ben Torah, who's been struggling for years all alone. Has hardly heard about GYE, and had no idea what it's like. And he has no regular access to internet. He still has enough to struggle with, unfortunately. And I have had the zechus of guiding him, of showing him how he can get past all these behaviors. He's BH on fire and I daven he'll keep soaring. My friends, Hashem gave me taste of what it would be like to help people that don't know the culture here, that haven't read any threads, that don't know about the F2F program, and most importantly, that don't know there is a way out.

And we can change that.

Again, please share your thoughts. ?????? ???? ????

Wow, Parev! Amazing!

I'd suggest you encourage the people reaching out that they go to GYE. Once they get here, they'll beH learn the tips they need.

The line is up and running, BH. As with everything, will need some tweaking before it goes public. Working on it with a rabbanim. And yes, I'd like there to be an Israeli number that connects to it. First working on making the line functional. Will keep you updated beH.

P.s. The number is super easy to remember, BH.

Someone just emailed this to me... what does the oilam think???

Hi. I'm very impressed with your eagerness and willingness to help others, which is also a great tikun.

I just took down your new sign again, and since there was a note asking not to take it down, I'll try to explain a drop.

Even though the original sign also made me wonder wether it shoulfd be hanging in yeshiva, ??' ????? ?"?: ?????"? ??' ??"? ??"?, I didn't want to take achrayus of maybe holding back help from someone, and stuck to

?? ??? ?????.

But a sign stating that 40 bnei yeshiva called for help definitely shouldn't be hanging for various reasons, one of them being chilul hashem (even if no one sends it to the whole world via social media as often happens with signs in yeshiva), and other reasons as well.

I love how even the sign-rippers in BMG have mareh mekomos.

Tell him he's a chasid shotah who's going to a special place in gehinom. Ask him why it's a chillul hashem to mention people reaching out for help, but not a chillul hashem when those same guys were on their knees in their bathroom worshipping a (non-jewish!) porn star. Explain to him that he's very similar to the people hanging their idols on the back of the door, and his denial of the facts would be cute if it wasn't so pathetic.

Sigh. There's a special type of idiot in the world. And I can respect that he emailed you. So having to give a serious response. Explain to him the pain of someone suffering from lust addiction. Point him to the statistics. And then tell him that you cannot be mochel him if he deterred anyone from getting help and the only hope for teshuva he has is to take over the sign. Ask him to suggest a way to reword it hanging job.

Sounds like a really nice guy that needs his head checked. Maybe I'm nuts, but to me this is craziness. Here is a sign that has helped 40 people somewhat, it's working, and you decided it's chilul Hashem, so you took it down?! Which world do you live in anyway? Have you asked a rav? Whom are we kidding? The 40 that called are from the few gibborim, while the others...Again,maybe I'm wrong. But this made my blood boil

Tell him to look at the ????"? for what a ?????? ??? is. Ask him if all the ??????? ?????? that the fellows commit because of his taking down the sign constitute ?????? ??? and if he's taking ??????? for it...

I'm happy to speak to him and meet him too if it'll help.

IWLR, we can go together if you'd like. No pressure, happy to help in any way if it's a help.

Couldn't have said it better. The guy needs an education what Chillul Hashem is.

This guy is gonna have to pay for my blood pressure medication.

I don't begin to understand! What did you write? That 40 heilige Yidden reached out to serve Hashem better. That 40 ehrilche bnei Torah want to leave the world of lust behind, that 40 special people bit the bullet to call a Yid who said he has a way out for them, even though it was so hard for them.....And that's Chilul Hashem?!?!?!?! Where have we gone????

There is absolutely no chilul hashem in asking for help. The fact that this is a struggle is not some thing that we created. Apparently the person who emailed you does not understand how widespread this struggle is. certainly it would not be a good idea to write anything explicit, but that is not the case here.

I would say keep doing what you are doing and don't be offended that people have different views.

You know someone's crossed a line if even eerie is gettin' mad.

Actually having him talk to eerie might be helpful.

i would check w a daas toira that i'ts good to put up signs, and supposing the answer is yes, i'd share that w this signtakedowner and let him know that you will continue putting up more and more signs al pi daas toira.

i don't think a din u'dvarim is appropriate agav, yasher koach to the baal haemail for those marei mekomois
