Month of Elul - my biggest trigger! Posted by dreamyunicorn28 - 30 Sep 2024 19:56

I'm so triggered and vulnerable right now! I came such a long way B"H but I'm so down these days and my urges are to the sky. I think a lot of it has to do because it's Elul- the pressure to do Teshuva triggers me... Luckily I don't have the means to act out in many ways but I'm very vulnerable.

SOS!

used to dread Elul. I think what helped me is learning how to use Elul productively, rather than eeling pressure. I also relate to not acting out simply for a lack of means, that was probably moday.
f you're interested, I'd be happy to chat about another way of approaching elul.
anyway, chazak v'eematz! Youre doing great!

Hey I feel the same way!
I wrote about it here today. Curious to hear your thoughts.
