

I have no words to thank each and every one of you for all you have given me.

I honestly believe that my personal struggle would have failed without you amazing men who helped me step by step.

I will probably not be reading the mens side either - too hard not to reply!

Future PMs and emails may be sent via Guard

Not so simple - Guard has to accept your resignation before your status can change.

Whaddya mean "not yeshivish"??!!

How do you tell a yeshiva bochur from a yeshivishe bochur?

The yeshiva bochur walks into a hotel room, puts down his suitcase and turns on the TV.

The yeshivishe bochur turns on the TV before putting down the suitcase.

I adding unneeded agreement with Guard on this. whether or not it's "Yeshivish" it's the the right thing to do. We know that we need many fences. The more the marrier.

I agree to the separation. I was very uncomfortable having women on the forum although I am certain that they meant well but it is not proper that the 2 genders should converse with each other. the stiepler wouldn't take kvitlach from women it had to be written from a man in the 3rd person. Now, we arent at his level but in this forum when we are trying to purify ourselves we should bend backwards to keep clean. Even moderators should be separate. thank you
