

Please gimme some Chizuk and or Mussar.

Hi fellow Yiddin,

I am new to the site, but what I've seen so far is extremely comforting. Before I saw this sight, I thought my cause was hopeless. I knew I could never tell anyone my sins in person and here comes this website to allow me to gain advice from people who are in the same boat as me and from poeple who have gone beyond the natural tendencies of man and succeeded.

I am a college student who learns half the day. I need to stop immediately. The internet is the biggest Yetzer Harah since the Nachash in the story of Adam and Chava. Many times I feel they are comparable. The Nachash told Chava that Hashem said she couldnt touch the tree. When in reality Hashem said she couldnt eat from it. After the Nachash pushed Chava into the tree, she saw that maybe the whole condition is canceled and she could now even it from it. We all know the rest of the story. And what was Chava's punishment? She had to go through painfull childbirths. From the Men's perspective we can see this as us doing the same. When we are Nichshal and do this evil sin, we are causing ourselves to go through a painfull childbirth. I dont know about anyone else, but after I finish giving in to my Yetzer Harah, I have the worst feeling in the world. It hurts more than any exterior wound. I really feel like "Shir Hama'alos Mimamakim Kerasicha Hashem!" It genuinely feels like calling to Hashem for help from the depths of earth, like Im on the brink of entering Gehinom. So, if we are about to be Nichshal we should try to rememebr that feeling that we had after the previous time, like were are going through childbirth so that next time we will actually think about our actions and not let our minds go astray.

I really daven everyday that everyone who wishes to, should have the Koach to destroy this Yezer Harah.

Hashem: Please all the Jews here have such holy intentions, give them the strength!

everyone should have a great day and keep your eyes down when walking, constantly think about Torah and what Hashem would want, and daven. (i wish that would all be as easy to do as it is to write)

GYE Chevra:

This is a call out to someone for help. I am an old timer here on the forum, but still very young. Im not even married. I would really like some help from someone. I had contacted Zev who recently joined and then promptly exited the forum but I havent heard from him in a while after trying to contact him so I have given up on him. Please someone reach out to me through private message or email (Yiddle2@gmail.com). Its around 2 weeks before Rosh Hashanah and I cant seem to stay clean. Please please please. Please Hashem help me.

Thank you.

I'm sorry to hear that, I'm sure there are guys here who'd be happy to talk to you directly, there is also a phone hotline.

I'm in no position to give anyone chizuk or mussar, but my heart goes out to you.

Stay strong!

Unfortunately, it doesnt seem that way. I think this is the 3rd time I have called out for this kind of help and nobody has responded. One would think that people are looking for this kind of partnership on this network, but I guess not. I'm not looking for someone to give me chizuk and mussar. No not at all. I'm looking for someone to grow with. That we inspire each other and call out to each other for help. I'm not looking for a Rebbe, I'm looking for more a Chavrusa. (but not actually a chavrusa).
