I am a chassidshe family man close to my fifties. I'm not so much into looking for bad sites. I have filtered internet. But i have access to another office computer from outside which i can access through programs. That computer is not filtered. I'm addicted to chat but i mean in the wrong way. I love to talk to women and girls. Of course the wrong and terrible things. I hate to say it but it makes me crazy and is a loss to my buissness. i have tried so many things. I have shiurim. I daven erlich but once i'm in office nothing stops me from this addiction. I have others who know me on Yahoo chats already so even i'm not in a chatroom they contact me . Its so terrible. If anybody can help please do. i will be watching here for help.

Wow! this reminds me of myself going back a few years

I am off that addiction completely after years of struggling with it.

I don't have any answers as to how to get over it, but I'm sure you will have many people in here that will help you with it.

For me I stoped when I realized like you do now that,

A. I lost lots of money by not getting work done.

B. It got me to take it 1 step lower then just chatting on line. (No Negiya or Sex) & didn't want to ruin my great life I had going with my lovely wife & children B'H.

Staying in the chat rooms will eventually get you to the lowest of the low if you dont stop while your ahead. It dose not end in the chat room. I had a friend of mine that ended up in a dirty divorce by the time he was done. I begged him to stop but I guess he didn't have the power or maybe he didn't have GYE at that time.

C. I got fed up when I realized that the chat rooms are full of Losers & B"H I didn't see myself as a looser so I quit cold turkey.

Its my understanding that "Guard" will be trying to set up a chat room on this site hopefully soon & I think it will be helpful for people with chat addiction to chat over here in a good way to help them get over it in a bad way.

for now try to read up on the hand books GYE just put out, it should help you even if your not a Porn addict.

i never knew this was the mekor of the GYE chat bar.
