

Looking to Chat

Posted by Holy Yid - 22 Mar 2010 02:12

We have an "I am about to fall" thread where we can go for help, but I already fell and want to connect with some of my holy brothers here.

If someone is not about to fall but can still use the chizuk of chatting come here and put up a post and hopefully someone will respond.

Right now if someone is around I am looking to chat. IM and I'll send you my email address.
