

The mouse being honest

Posted by an honest mouse - 12 Apr 2010 13:31

I had been 21 days clean till friday then i fell and i just fell again, I was doing so well, looking forward to being back with my wife after nearly a year without being with her properly (coz of sickness during pregnancy and post pregnancy), i should've been clean for nearly a month when the time comes but i blew it and I feel really bad about it.

as soon as pesach finished and the summer came i felt like a protective shield had been removed, i felt exposed and vulnerable and now i've fallen lower than I have for a while. How do i get started over again ? pesach and long cleanliness for my wife where incentives which I've lost.

some thoughts and chizuk would be greatly appreciated, thanks!

p.s just posting here and knowing that others are tackling this problem too is really helpful, thanks to you all!

Really? Where mamesh in the cheese, or floating above it somewhere? Or is the geshtaltzemfleegin disguised as the mouse itself? They are very tricky you know, these geshtaltzemfleeger-thingies...

i dont know what you guys are talking about but im back! thanks for leaving the cheese out zemmy, shame it's gone off by now. Have you got any more?

I was on vacation and the good news is, i left clean and i returned clean, but serene too.

Have a great shabbos!

I didn't know that ppl on this forum drank wine. I thought this was a woodford kind of place. ZS, do you do wine recommendations?

Dry/semidry:

Montepulciano d'Abruzzo - very nice with meaty Shabbos stuff.

If you want a delicious wine (but it will put you to sleep) a spanish wine with a yellow and red label called Ramon Cardova Rioja.

Goten Shabbos.
