

struggle continues

from a high to a low-

So after a shabbos where I made harchakos from mstrbtion and erotic lit as well as davened what i felt were good tefillos, i fell twice in a short span; once last night and once this morning. Right after the falls, i felt that since the urge and the yh were so immensely powerful, i felt powerless and concluded there is nothing i could have done this time other than msbt... I didnt have remorse basically; I chalked it up to the YH.

the yezter hara seems to have so much patience that even if i go a week clean (which is what i had) the urge can come at any moment...

help appreciated...thanks guys.

it was enjoyable at the time altho it also felt a little stale it also happened to be in nidda- not to make excuses but there does seem to be a pattern for me.

Try dropping the phone in the toilet. Make it look like an accident.

Just an idea....

One of the disadvantages of K9 on the iPhone is that it's not configurable, you can't set different levels of protection or blacklist sites. I'm not aware of any other filter that's better though. BTW just yesterday they came out with a new version that performs much better and now supports bookmarks.

I myself just recently got rid of my old smartphone that did not have a filter, and I now have an iPhone with K9.

The following are perhaps stupid questions - to whomever they may concern:

Do you have internet connection on a device that is not needed for your parnassah?

Didn't the gedolim of our generation say that it is forbidden (and dangerous) to have?

Sorry for being naive.

I only have (filtered) internet access on a computer at work, which the Gedolim were Matir. When in doubt whether your internet access is one that may be allowed by the Gedolim, ask a Shayla. When you know for sure that it does not meet their guidelines, then that's a problem.

I think that's clear. (I assume you're not one of those who question the decisions of our Gedolim.)
