

Maccabee's War

Posted by Maccabee - 30 May 2010 03:21

Alright hopefully the post name will in itself give me a little chizuk. Shabbos in general was terrible and I fell more than once, however mincha time I gave over by heart to someone in the community a long drasha which I had learnt a week before shavuos and still remembered clearly B"H. So I'm on a bit of a low right now particularly because everytime it's on shabbos it usually involves breaking it which kills me. So right now I'm in a lot of pain and I'm calling out to you my dear friends to help me through this.

I joined a phone conference this week and some interesting things were discussed but nothing which has helped yet. I know I'm doing something wrong but it's so hard to pinpoint where to start. HELP!!!!!!!!!!

Even better start today. Woke up @ 7 went to mikva and davened. However i had a problem when i started learning right after shachris because i couldn't concentrate while I was learning. Then I went to the doctor and didn't start learning again till 12 and finished at 1. I think the afternoon is my main weak spot. And yes i fell again. Hey dov its not getting as painful, i wonder if thats good or bad. I think I'm just becoming callous. So I've decided that I should make a hachlota that whenever I act out I have to write and post something to the Beis Medrash. Before making it official, however, I want your guys feedback. Don't be shy. Speak your mind. Any other ideas are welcome. If you're just saying hello thats appreciated too.

Wait. Let's see. You want to set up something painful for every time you fall. So that you won't want to fall. And what you pick is... SHARING WORDS OF TORAH?

SO, YOU'RE SAYING THAT SHARING WORDS OF TORAH WITH YOUR HOMIES HERE IS THE MOST PAINFUL THING YOU CAN THINK OF? WHO SHOULD BE MORE INSULTED: THE HOMIES OR THE TORAH?!!

In other words, could we just leave the heilige Torah out of this, and find something else for torturing yourself?

You asked for blunt, so I'm givin' ya blunt. Hope you meant it.

Hmmn. Maybe you could take on that if ch'v you ever act out again, you would have to...

re-read every single long rambling post, from day one, from any of the frequentest and ramblingest and unfocusedest and boringest post-ers on the whole forum.

Take that on, and... you'll never fall again! Or, at least, let that be my bracha to you!

OK I'm really getting weirded out. I set K9 so that when i go on a blocked website, it barks. So far I haven't gone to a single wrong website. But as soon as I change position suddenly the computer barks. So far its happened twice.

I'm afraid you got the wrong program. K9 is the basic level of protection. It seems you downloaded "Claws" -- the premium package for ultimate security.

It knows when you've been sleeping; it knows when you're awake. It knows when you've been bad or good, so be good for goodness sake.... I'm telling you why: Santa CLAWS is coming to town.

I hope you're not too frum and sheltered to get this awful awful pun. I just couldn't help myself. I'm one sick _puppy_ sometimes. Just, keep your paws to yourself and no one gets hurt.
