

Israel SA

Posted by joav - 25 Jun 2010 07:42

hello to all of the forum. My name is Joav and I am 21 days clean. After my wife found out what was going on we cried and discussed and yelled and lots of other stuff. I live in the holyland and noticed that all the call in help lines for group therapy are in the U.S. Are there any in Israel? Are there any SA groups in Israel? If someone could let me know that would be great? Thanks for all the help and to all remember You only have to open a pin sized hole and then Heshem enlarges it to fit an elephant through.

Shabbat Shalom

Try this: sa-israel.org/ContactSa.htm

And have your wife join the "Spouses of Addicts" forum. She should sign up to the forum and then write me at eyes.guard@gmail.com and I'll give her access to that forum.

Be well.
