

yechida's reflections

(any questions , insights & suggestions about this thread,feel free to email me at taryaga@gmail.com)

There are many reasons we need to be where we are and who we are,most are unknown.Why do we even have to be in a situation or have in our soul so much darkness and a pull toward self-destructing negative behaviors?

I saw once an amazing thought in a sefer.Moshe Rabeinu came from a union that after the Torah was given would have deemed him a mamzer(parents being an aunt & nephew).He could not boast of his lineage.This is one reason that let him be the greatest Anov that ever lived.

We who have to deal with the stuff that's in us that we would rather not have in the first place-this pain and shame over the course of time -makes us realize that even when we b'ezras Hashem pull out of the addictions-we will never look at another Yid that is struggling with this in a negative way

We catch a Yid looking where he shouldn't be looking and our hearts are full of compassion.We will daven for him,treat him with respect,gently try to get him out of it.We would never disgrace him-not even in our hearts-because we were there.We know what it's like.In our eyes he is a potential tzaddik.

This is surely one reason Hashem gave us this urge towards baseness with all it's shades of ugliness.Yes you are special-like every Yid is-but never ever judge harshly My son or daughter that is struggling-because I love him or her - he or she is part of Klall Yisroel.Just as indispensable as you are.

R' Bardechev,

I remember as a kid, standing on 34 and 6 and looking up at the empire state building. It kept going up and up and up, and I could not see the top.

That is how I feel now when you put me with R' Yechida.

It is humbling.

Yechida,

Thanks for the letter to my wife.

I can feel the Pain, it is soooooo true.

The Women have a good reason to be hurt, but but but, They can help us more then Anyone can. that said Only when & if we are doing our part in the battle for recovery & Guarding ourselves.

We desperately need their support. Not the opposite!

E.L.

Guard,

I think the time has come to start that new thread we discussed for GYE spouses.

Yechida's letter must top the page, and EL's reply can follow.

7up,

Great Idea!

This just comes to show what a real Aishes Chail you must be.

Its not easy for woman to be so understanding when it comes to PA or SA as you have said a few weeks ago that you have been discussing OA with a group of woman & it was an excepted problem but when you mentioned SA they looked at you like you fell off the moon.

Thanks for having the guts in opening there minds.

E.L.

EL

Aishes Chayil shmayil!

I didnt feel I had guts in opening their minds. I felt I had a responsibility.

Bardichev;

You are so right. Which is why they deserve a place to unload their pain.
