

why do we tell about falls

I would love to hear from the oilom is it really beneficial to post every fall.

I understand that sometimes we want chizuk. On the other hand since we are trying to get up and keep on trucking maybe we shouldn't make a big deal about it. When every body starts posting back don't worry etc. It makes the whole thing a big deal

That, my dear FF, was a very profound post.

Seriously, that is the secret behind the words of Chazal, Kol Haposel Bemumo Posel, and the reason why the raven was choshed Noach with having eyes on Mrs. Raven (silly bird!).
