

Reaching Out for Help on Shabbos

Disclaimer: Nothing posted on this thread, or anywhere else on the forum, should be relied upon for Halacha l'Maaseh. As to whether a Sheilah should be asked, see replies # 110 & 112.

[Note that the first few pages of this thread relate to an earlier version of this poll. Many of the issues raised have been addressed in the way the question is currently worded].

What do you say, Chevra? This is a question that has been on my mind for quite some time.

Finally (I hope!), if someone chooses to ask a Sheilah in this area, he should do himself a favor, and ask someone who has a very good understanding of addictions in general, and this addiction in particular.

Which leads me to a suggestion: The time has come for GYE to provide training for Rabbonim.

excellent idea

i would also suggest we might as well get some rabbonim as moderators or at least as a rabbinical board

GYE does have a Rabbinical Board. However, I don't envision the Rabbanim moderating the forum anytime soon.

In my opinion, Dov is the only one qualified to pasken such a sheilah. If anyone has such a sheilah, I would tell him to speak to Dov by phone for a little while (before Shabbos, of course) and Dov will help him decide if it's "mutar" for him or not ;D

Rebbereber=DOV

All rabbinic duties are on you now

Which includes

Selling chamets

Siddur kiddushin

Hakamas matzaivos

Sandikaos

Hmmm pretty much what u have been doing till now

I think that's why the Adam Gadol refused to Paskin it!

It turns out that I am actually the biggest misnagged to this guy, Dov. (Even bigger than my mother-in-law!) :o

So there.

So, I am a chosid of Guard, and he is a chosid of Reb b, and...
Second biggest!

Truly I have been a sandek already (I did it because Yesod Yosef writes that it is a tikun for hz"l R"l, and i really thought that it might 'do the trick'!...finally after 17 more years of screwing up I finally did start to get sober....so maybe it did help! ???)

Actually, about the mohel part, I have a/ways wanted to see if it really is possible to do bris in the backseat of a Cadillac sedan deVille. (Anybody here old enough to remember that one?)

Have a nice day, fellow knuckleheads.

It was a Lincoln Continental Town Car. And it was a Saturday Night Live take-off of the "slice a diamond" original commercial. And rather antiSemitic at that, as I remember.

Maybe you're referring to using the backseat of a Cadillac to get things started about 9 mo and 8 days earlier?

You are naughty, indeed....but have a very good memory. So we'll let it go, this time.
