

Taking a Break

Posted by Holy Yid - 16 Nov 2010 07:17

I have decided to take a break from the forum.

I wish all of my friends here only the best. I will be thinking about you and davening for you.

If someone wants to contact me send me an l'm. I would prefer if you include an email address, if I do not have it.

Please keep this special place alive and vibrant.
