For me, it's a liberating and exhilarating feeling to realize that just because things are stressful, doesn't mean I should act out.

Its very intresting to me that the israeli government has money to waste on such studies. I am sure this study will bring much advancement to human beings. It is definitely much more worth it spend money on these people than people just studying gemarah!

Why with the money they make from this they'll be able to support all the yeshivos. I'm thinking of filing for a patent "husband be calm tear gas". Every woman in the world is a potential client. "is your husband too horny." "have a headache and don't want to be bothered by your husband" one spray from our unique HBC tear gas will solve all your problems. This is huge.

Hey there bro - how are things going?

Like your new siggy, by the way. There's a live version that I've always liked better, but perhaps the best thing about the song is that it's SO easy to play on guitar! :D

Pressure can be good - it's a chance to break your old scripts.

I was waitinggggggg to hear your reaction to those reruns!

...im afraid we're running a rerun this week.....

.....but we're still in production and i think the guy who played the rabbi now wants a producer credit or a raise so we're thinking of killing off his character and all...sigh....
