Not exactly to the point, but just too tired to think now and wanted to post something really profound before signing off:

Ghadafi (very funny name in Hebrew, actually!) must be a real screwball.

40 years as supreme dictator of Libya - and he is still just a Colonel? What's with that?

all the answers do not lie in one place...
Actually, the answers don't lie at all! (haha)

OK, so glad you liked the Colonel thing Reb Dooovit!

So the Gaddafi funniness is because I think "gadal" in loshon Kodesh means "blasphemed", no?

It also sounds like my favorite duck....but we won't go there....

You are probably right, but it just sounded like a G to my untrained ear....though I can pick things up with it...

Now that I've got to see! I've seen people balance broom sticks on their nose but never seen anybody pick things up with their ear.

Dov is like I diamond always revealing a new side that we never saw before.

In the olden times they used to hold a pencil with the ears; nowadays it is that little thing with the blue blinking light. ;D

(BTW If you find one in Great Adventures.....)

It's really simple, but it's cheating. I put a vacuum cleaner hose against my opposite ear, lean over and..... :o

it must have been the Yiddish.
Rage - you have a tail?

Seriously, though, that is beautiful. And even more beautiful is the fact that you were able to clearly see hashem reaching out and helping you on a personal level.

Thank you, brother.

If I were you I wouldn't want to spend that much time in my head either, addiction notwithstanding.

Good Morning.
