

Where I'm at

To whom it may concern,

My name is Uri. I live in the jerusalem area and i am a sex and love addict. This took me a long time to come to terms with, to say the least. But that we'll get to in a second.

I am finishing now my third year in beis medrash. While i have had success in my learning b'h, i have a source of shame and anguish that has caused me great depression on a constant basis. I lived (live really) two lives; my yeshiva/religious life which is the source of much admiration and pride from my parents and rebbeim. And then there is my "secret life", where I spend time ranging from 10 minutes a day to almost full off days fantasizing and worse acting out of all sorts. I feel like the worlds biggest hypocrite. It bothers me even more cause i find sincerity and honesty of the utmost importance, and i have to stand and watch myself trample all over these traits. After several years of therapy i have recently come to the realization that basically all of my "major" issues have come from this place. I have major issues in getting close to people and keeping friends once i feel that they know me too well. i have a hard time sitting by myself due to my uncomfortability of sitting with a unsatiable sex addict (however ironic that might sound). The need creeps up all too often, followed by a crazy need to satisfy it. There are several paths to this: porn, masturbation, contact with a sexual girl, and, strangely enough, eating out at restaurants, but that well get to a diff time. Anyway, there is one main girl, as there always is. we have had the weirdest on and off relationship, to say the least. the jealousy and overprotection i had with her is still a shock to me even. anyway im tired so i shall continue this so is rabbi schlachter the best of the doctors?

This is what ribi yehuda in the mishna in Kiddusin, pey bet, says about the various professions:

Why defend him? Rage has a point:

Maybe it's worthwhile to go to gehinom, if on the way there you'll help schlep a few other folks out of gehinom.

(In fact, per Rav Yosef Chayim, zt"l, the Gm' in Berachos indicates that many tzaddikim go through gehinom just for that express purpose...and he wasn't even chassidish!)

the child sits there stunned too stunned to cry

the father walks away...

the tears are frozen to his face as the child sits traumautized...
