

Where I'm at

Posted by jerusalemsexaddict - 16 Jul 2009 19:45

To whom it may concern,

My name is Uri. I live in the jerusalem area and i am a sex and love addict. This took me a long time to come to terms with, to say the least. But that we'll get to in a second.

I am finishing now my third year in beis medrash. While i have had success in my learning b'h, i have a source of shame and anguish that has caused me great depression on a constant basis. I lived (live really) two lives; my yeshiva/religious life which is the source of much admiration and pride from my parents and rebbeim. And then there is my "secret life", where I spend time ranging from 10 minutes a day to almost full off days fantasizing and worse acting out of all sorts. I feel like the world's biggest hypocrite. It bothers me even more cause i find sincerity and honesty of the utmost importance, and i have to stand and watch myself trample all over these traits. After several years of therapy i have recently come to the realization that basically all of my "major" issues have come from this place. I have major issues in getting close to people and keeping friends once i feel that they know me too well. i have a hard time sitting by myself due to my uncomfortability of sitting with a unsatiable sex addict (however ironic that might sound). The need creeps up all too often, followed by a crazy need to satisfy it. There are several paths to this: porn, masturbation, contact with a sexual girl, and, strangely enough, eating out at restaurants, but that we'll get to a diff time. Anyway, there is one main girl, as there always is. we have had the weirdest on and off relationship, to say the least. the jealousy and overprotection i had with her is still a shock to me even. anyway im tired so i shall continue this uri, i know this may not mean much,

but if you knew how much you've impacted my life with your songs,

i think you'd never ever think of suicide ever again.

cuz literally, i don't think i've gone a day without using your song to ground me in reality.

i listen to your songs in the morning when i wake up,

on the bus

on the train

walking around

on the train again

on the bus again

and sometimes before i go to bed.

because they really help to "keep my yetzer at bay"

thank you, mikol halev,

habib

Welcome

Efshar Letakin,

Thanks for your encouragement. It really does help. I've read some of your other posts. You are genuine and sincere and have a good sense of humor, too. Very smooth and slick (in a good way, of course) and on target. Your tidbits of chizuk here and there are very UPLIFTING. THANKS!

And URI,

REFUAH SHELAIMA! Get lots of rest. Kesiva VaChasima Tovah!!

Ok im really not feeling well,but i simply had to sign on and post

I was just laying on the couch lost in my dizzyness and fever when my sister walked up to me and reached out for a hug.

5 years old,adorable,puppy eyes,very kissable...

I instinctively reached to hug her but i stopped myself.

I dont want to get her sick...

And it was so so frustrating,my friends,let me tell you

I just wanted to be able to hug her to share some love...

some warmth...

to hold her...

and i couldnt.

sooo frustrating.

And I thought of our Tatte in Shamayim....

He so badly wants to hug us all day all night...

To share with us His love for us....

His warmth.....

But sometimes we resist.

Can you imagine His frustration and His pent-up love?!

Let's just let Him smother us with hugs,okay chevre?
