

Ki Nafalti , Gam Kamti

Posted by ben durdayah - 30 Dec 2010 08:14

:(Although I've had my ups and downs over the years, and some long streaks of abstinence from any P or M, I never got off the roller coaster. Not that I think that I'm the most far gone person here as far as the quality and quantity of the shmutz, still I know that this is an addiction that never left me and never will if I do nothing about it.

This morning i thought of a mashal (someone else might have used it already, but for me it was a moment of clarity from heaven): A temporary bout with the YH about lust and P etc. is like a strep throat -take your antibiotics, drink fluids, rest up and it'll go away; if you don't catch the bacteria again -you're cured, and it's gone. But when the struggle for kedusha keeps on being just that, and with the slightest slip -you feel that you've lost control and your actions show that even years of self restraint didn't do the job (like ridin' a bicycle -ya never forget how to; same thing goes for sewage surfing...) that my friends is like Rachmana Litzlan Lo Aleinu V'lo Aleichem 'Yennerr Machla', and not the kind that attacks at first a specific organ or is operable; rather like the kinds of Yenner Machla in the blood -the best they can do is put it in remission, but it's there to stay -and when Chalila V'chas it's active -there's no limit to the damage it can do and the places that it will show up in. Same goes for addiction to Shmutz.

What's the point of this whole tirade? ... to be continued in the next installment (because it's too hard to type without seeing what your doing and I've filled the window and now it's dancing the Hora and making me dizzy...).

"Oiy-Yoy-Yoy" on the other hand is GREAT!

The Imrei Chaim used to say it often. It is the Roshei Teivos of the 6 Mitzvos temidiis. (I forgot how they are merumaz. Can anyone remind me, please?)

if a cow does a moo-moo here and a moo-moo there and everywhere a moo-moo, does that mean that the cow is addicted to moo-moo's?

or is it the cow's instinctive survival mechanism in play?

and maybe the reason we find this acceptance of each animal and it's distinctive call only on 'old' MacDonald's farm is because he has the wisdom gained with age to accept each animal for what it was and not try to force the dog to moo-moo and the cat to woof-woof?

please pass the Birchas Shmuel

Why is it in the past tense: He had a farm?

He doesn't have it anymore?

Did PETA take it away?

"where's it holding". Try this one on: "RBSO if I'm experiencing withdrawal right now its for one reason and one reason only. Because You are sending those feelings my way and I accept it completely. But I've no clue what to do with it. So please show me the way.". Don't know if that makes sense but its what came to mind.
