I find myself in a interesting situation. Although the compulsion for porn and to oggle women has bh subsided i still find myself touching myself. There is no kishuy just my hands go there. This happens alot when i feel stressed that I will compulsivly touch myself.

There is a story of a man who fell into a hole. He was down there for a while and a fireman came by and said, "hey buddy, whats going on?" The man replied, "I fell into this hole and have no idea how to get out." The fireman said, "No idea buddy." And so on, people who came by had no idea how to get him out of the hole.

Then his friend came by and said "whats going on?" The man told him the same story, "I fell into this hole and have no idea how to get out." To his astonishment, his friend jumped into the hole. The man cried out, "What the hell did you do that for? Now we are both stuck!" His friend responded calmly, "Yes we are, but I've been here before and I know the way out."

We have all been there Chaim and we want to show you the way out. We are your friends and rooting for you. Good shabbos.

Reb chaim, we are all here with u , use this shabbos of kabulas hatorah, to climb out of that sewer pit, if the jews in egypt could, u could just do the same

Hold on to me, I'll pull u out

May hashem see the pain u r in and ur strong will to leave ur old ways and we know chazal say , if u open a pinhole.....

chaim, you came along so far and did so much over the past months, and all that progress is still with you. sometimes we think we don't want to climb out of the hole. deep down we all do, including you.

stay here and keep connected and bezras Hashem you will come out and reach even higher.
