Welcome JosephG! I don't know if you read through this while thread, but you might have to make it to Boropark/Brooklyn or Yerushalayim for a BBQ!

I'm from out-of-town.

Does that help?

but Reb B teaches me yiddish!

how am i going to learn if i don't try to sound out every word he writes and then try to figure out what it means?

yiddish is part of Bardichev's charm ;D

True story:

there was an artscroll gemara on R' Elyashiv's desk.

i even google some of the stuff

Someone asked him if he uses the Artscroll?!?

He smiled and answered... yes... to learn English!

oh, and, yeah, that was hysterical!!

Wait a minute.... Is that a true story or not about the Artscroll on the Rov's shlitoth desk? I did not get it. If so, how do you know??? I would really appreciate knowing one way or the other.

Rav Elyashuv shlitoth should have a refuah shleimoh bimahairoh mamesh bs/sh/ch/am/Yis.

Amen.

Heard the story from one of the senior editors of Artsroll, who I know and trust.

THE AREA INCLUDES

B.P WILLY-B FLATBUSH

MONSEY TO THE NORTH

LAKEWOOD TO THE SOUTH

I dunno Reb B.

The Greater Teaneck area doesn't seem so out of town to me.

I would consider NJ pretty in there...

That would also include anywhere in Israel?

I think Bardichev needs to respond to that, but I'll say, Israel is above and beyond. And I think us Israelis wouldn't really want to be considered NYers...

Here, though, it's all about kibutz galuyot.
