

Source for GUE Attitude 17 - Redirecting the power in our souls

Posted by Noorah BAMram - 22 Jun 2009 18:15

In general, those who struggle a lot with these issues, have a great deal of emotional and spiritual energy inside them. It is they who actually have the capacity and potential for the most intense spiritual connection with Hashem. We just need to learn how to channel the energy of our souls in the proper ways.

It is also known, that people with particular character traits, such as creativity, love for people and spiritual sensitivity, are more prone to seeking alternate expression for their inner strengths through a stronger than usual sexual drive. That is why it is so important to learn how to channel these strengths we have in the proper ways. Heightened sexual desire is actually a symptom of a deep subconscious need that - for some reason - has still not reached fulfillment.

I ask in spirit of a humble student who is trying to understand better, " what is the source for this?

its encouraging and maybe even a wee bit flattering to know that there is all this greatness and i would like to know more about it.

Your humble student

NB

=====
=====

Re: Source for GUE Attitude 17 - Redirecting the power in our souls

Posted by the.guard - 22 Jun 2009 19:01

Dear Nura, for more info on this, download this wonderful PDF file from the translations of "The first day of the rest of my life" and see Days 12-15.

=====

=====

Re: Source for GUE Atitude 17 - Redirecting the power in our souls
Posted by Ykv_schwartz - 22 Jun 2009 19:39

N.B.,

A few paragraphs later Guard quotes from Rav Tzadok #44 who addresses the issue head on.

=====

=====

Re: Source for GUE Atitude 17 - Redirecting the power in our souls
Posted by Noorah BAmram - 23 Jun 2009 02:29

To be continued.

I would like to quote it in hebrew and get everyone thoughts on what specifically what the Heilega Reb Tzadok means.

=====

=====