

A revealing Gemorah...

Posted by gonnabekodosh - 03 Oct 2011 22:07

Hi,

A Chsovah yid said over this Gemorah and I had to share it...

The Gemarah in Messachas Gitten (??.) Says as follows (with my explanations and elucidations)

The Romans would want to have beautiful children So they would take handsome jewish boys and tie them to their beds while they were having relations and look at them, hoping their children would be just as beautiful. One time they took two boys and tied them to their bed and started having relations, One boy turned to the other and said "Where is this written?" meaning Where in the Torah is it written such a horrible punishment, That we are chained to a bed watching to Goyim have Relations! the other boy responded its written in the posuk (?? ?? ??? ??? ??? ?? ??? ??? ??? ??? ???) {????? ??} " And Also all Sickness and Punishment that is not written in this Torah" Meaning - This Punishment of Being Chained to a bed and watching people sleep with each other Is so Horrible It couldn't be mentioned in the Curses of the Torah!

Can you Imagine? Those Innocent sweet Jewish Children Suffering away, being Chained to a bed, with Hashem Saying that is an Unspeakable Punishment that is part of the Curses. While nowadays we Yidden are Chaining ourselves To the Beds of Goyim! Watching them have relations and we think we enjoy it?! Hashem Himself Said I Cannot imagine a more Worse Punishment and we willfully tie ourselves down to experience the worst hell Gd himself can create! Heavy stuff...

Hatzlacha

GonnabeKodosh

=====
=====

Re: A revealing Gemorah...

Posted by obormottel - 01 Nov 2011 07:09

that is zehr shtark! thank you!

=====
=====