Thear are the lyrics, for those who can't see it.

it's a beautiful song....

A typical Chossid, sitting and reflecting, The bitter taste of failure fills him, Where am I heading?
I fought with all my might, I've done all I can do, Yet it doesn't seem the change in me is real and true.

Though I know the truth, I feel I can not reach it, I do the act,yet my heart doesn't feel it My inspiration short, the battle long My efforts are all worthless, Oh it feels so wrong!

For an answer to the Rebbe he turns, As he is told, a Perek Tanya he learns A deep and new perspective Chassidus does show, My dear chossid this is what you musm know

All the millions of Malochim in the sky, Andtzadikim rising high In love and fear All so dear, but don't come near To Kol Dichiya U'Dichiya, even one, Each struggle you overcome, Each battle won Every Tefilah, Every Mitzvah that is done.

Your Avoda gives Him Nachas and pleasure, To Hashem you're the most precious treasure.
You build his Dirah in your world and heart, through every soldier conquering his little part.

Through Kol Dichiya U'Dichiya, even one, Each struggle you overcome, Each battle won Every Tefilah, Every Brocha Every single word of Torah, day or night Each Shema Yisroel you recite, each bit of light, Is infinite and reaches to the greatest height.

This is your truth so start with one step towards it It's not an act, for deep inside you mean it Although perfection you may never see, Yet to Hashem the battle is the victory.
