i posted this on my thread in WOH but i love it so much that Im going to take the liberty of posting it in the holy Bais Medrash :D :D :D

Here is another great quote from General Eisenhower - this was right after he got his fifth star and the Germans went on teh offensive known as the famous Battle of the Bulge

"Every time I get a new star, I get attacked."

could be its the same with us

???? ????? ????? ?????? ??? ????? ????? ?????? ?? ?????

perhaps ???? alludes to the midah of ????, the midah of ???? - the battle that we are all

Remember the lesson of General Eisenhower,

Fiery Love to all
