

Milsa D'Badichase / Vertlach / Derech Melitsa - "SIMCHA"

Since I don't even come close to the other Huge Talmidei Chachomim in here I decided to open this Thread for the "Milsa D'Bdichashe".

Its says (Reb Ykv Please get me the Mare Mokoim on this) that before a person starts learning they should start with a "Milsa D'Bdichashe" (Word of Humor) one of the reasons is that Humor or when a person Laughs it opens the heart, & once the heart is open you can poor in the Torah easily.

So to begin, Why did the chicken cross the road? Ne! that's not what I'm referring to.

I'm talking About Ah Git Vort or Vertel that has a more Humors tone like this one from Reb bardichev,

"LHAGID SHVACHO SHEL AHARON SHELO SHINA( ahaons in praised for not deviating)

THE QUESTION IS SIMPLE WHY AND HOW CAN HE CHANGE ANYTHING HE WAS COMMANDED BY HASHEM??

SAYS THE HEILIGE BARDICHEVER "ICH" (ME) LEVI YITZCHAK ( he would refer to himself in first person ,little bardichev does it too)

VOLT IBERGEDRIET DE MENIORAH ( I WOULD HAVE KNOCKED OVER THE MENORAH )OUT OF SHEER EXCITEMENT OF DOING THE MITZVAH I WOULD NOT BE ABLE TO CONTAIN MYSELF

AHARONS PRAISE IS HE TOOK ALL THE EXCITEMENT AND INTERNALIZED IT AND DID THE MITZVAH CORRECTLY!!!"

As long as its not in the boundaries of "Sechoik V'Kalos Roish" (Sorry London I don't know how to interpret that) everything goes.

I Heard a nice Vort I don't remember the source (as usual) it goes like this.

"Atzvus Iz Nisht Kein Aveiro! Ober Vus Atzvus Ken Tsi Brengen, Ken Nisht Di Greste Aveiro Tsi Brengen!"

"Simche Iz Nisht Kein Mitsvah! Ober Vus Simche Ken Tsi Brengen, Ken Nisht Di Greste Mitsvah Tsi Brengen!"

I Repeat!

"Depression In Itself, Is Not A Sin! But What Sins Depression Can Bring One To Do, No Sin On Itself Can!"

"Happiness In Itself, Is Not A Mitsvah (Good Deed)! But What Mitsvah (Good Deeds) Happiness Can Bring One To Do, No Mitsvah (Good Deeds) On Itself Can!"

Efshar Letaken, B'Simche! (With Happiness)

me,

Gr8 comeback line.

Its actually makes more sense what your saying.

But to Farentfer it we can say that they are both true.

The Maan De'Omaar that says that they go to Olam Ha'Booz is talking about a Alcoholic that did Teshuva and went to his AA meetings regularly.

And the Maan De'Omaar that says that he goes to Olam Ha'Shiker is referring to the Alcoholic that OD'd & never worked on the Addiction.

My only question is:

Which maan De'Omaar do we go like?

I guess for one who drinks enough, it doesn't make a difference.

7Up, how DID you think of that name.

It is phenomenal.

And thank you for the recall post.

A speaker once said that with a mashul you can sneak in all types of good things that the listener would normally reject.

If the mashal is interesting, the listener sits there with a mouth hanging open, and then you stuff in the vitamins, broccoli and spinach that they would normally never touch.

My only question is:

I guess for one who drinks enough, it doesn't make a difference.

This reminds me of the tragic story of "The Volpe". He was one of the prominent Talmidim of the Magid of Mezritch and supposedly due to his unbelievable intellect, he and the Baal Hatanya, were the only ones who were able to stay totally in control from start to finish when the Magid would say a Maymar Chasidus. The others would go into various levels of ecstasy and lose their identity.

The Volpe was an extremely poor man. One day he and the Baal Hatanya were at his shack and the roof was half caved in. He sighed and said to the Baal Hatanya, "Vot ich gehat a bessera Shtib", meaning "what would be if I had a nicer house". The Baal Hatanya responded, "By Deer Kricht a Vermul" meaning by you is crawling a worm.

Unfortunately soon afterwards, the Volpe fell hard. He started to drink heavily and became an alcoholic. He left the chabura and was never seen for years. One day many years later, he visited the house of a gadol (I don't remember who), and after speaking with him, the Gadol thought that he might be "The Volpe".

When the Volpe went to relieve himself, his host starting going through his bags. On his return, the Volpe saw what his host was doing and said to him. "If you are looking for Mamorim from the Magid, forget it. When the Magid used to say Mamorim, the Talmidim melded into his consciousness. There was never a need to take notes".

The lesson I take from this story is that as a result his connection with the Magid and his Talmidim, the Volpe was almost always experiencing a high. Even on his high level, somehow the Tavas Olam Hazeh for Gashmius crawled in and spiritually severed his connection with the Heiliga Chabura. He then had to search for a counterfeit high and reached for the Mashke.

Hashem should help that we should always choose the real thing!

Another story.

The Baal Shem Tov used to have a Shikur attend his daily morning Minyan. He never Davened, but sat their quietly. People once asked him that since he doesn't Daven, why does he regularly attend the Minyan? He answered that he doesn't know why, but after sitting through the Davening of the Baal Shem Tov, the Mashke he drings immediately after the Davening has a

A guy goes to a Kosher restaurant, and he orders 150 portions of Shnitzel, (fried chicken breasts). The waiter was a little taken back at the size of this order, and he asked the customer, "are you eating this alone?", "NO" replied the customer...I'm having it with rice!" ;D

Talking about Kedushe I just remembered a story I heard.

The Satmer Rebbe Reb Yoil once met a Bochor that was in his early 20's not married & not looking yet, so he asked him what's with the "Ben Shmonei Esrei L'Chupa"? to what the Bochor replied "I'm Davening a long Shmonei Esrei!"

So the Rebbe tells him "If You Daven A Long Shmonei Esrei You Might Miss Kedusha!"

I was at the drug store the other day when a guy walks in and asks, how many Suppositories come in a box? To which the guy behind the counter says 12.

Well then give me 10 boxes, he says.

I look at him in shock & say, I hope you don't mind me asking but why so many?

So he tells me that he has Yurtsat on T'sha B'Av & wants to give L'Chaim & Tikun for the Oilom!

I knew someone that just could not go without his daily cup of coffee. So, everytime a fast day came, he was really nervous. He actually came up with the same idea...using a suppository to have his sacred cup. But, when he told me he used 3 suppositories I had to ask why.

He explained, one is for the coffee, and the other two are for the milk, and sugar.
