

Seder Nashim

Posted by Kedusha - 02 Jul 2009 18:31

Hello,

I just discovered the GYE Beis Midrash, and would like to share the following (slightly edited), which I posted elsewhere this morning:

Chazal tell us that those born in a certain Mazal (Maadim) will have a tendency towards spilling blood. This can be channeled for the good, e.g. becoming a Mohel, Schochet, or physician. Alternatively, it can be channeled for the bad, c"v.

For those of us who have difficulties with our attraction towards women (whether they be real women or images), why not channel this desire to the learning of areas of Torah that relate to Nashim? There is a lot to keep us busy: seven Mesechtos of Mishnayos and Gemarah, not to mention Tosefta and Yerushalmi, all with their respective Meforshim. In addition, there is the Nashim section of the Rambam's Yad Hachazakah, and Shulchan Aruch Even HaEzer.

In other words, my friends, there is a perfectly Kosher way to spend our lives involved with Nashim. Crack open that Mishnayos Kedushin. Immerse yourself in Gemarah Gittin. Start a Seder in Tosefta Sotah or Yerushalmi Kesuvos. The opportunities are vast. What are we waiting for?

Yeh except that all the tricky sugyos of, dam besulim, onah, biah shelo kedarka, etc. well they get alittle too visual for anyone who watches them at night. You don't want to be caught 'with your pants down' when you finnaly understand pshat in the rashba! no for that you need yadayim nekiyot. when i did yavamos... i kept struggling with a 'pictorial' commentary, for how a kohen gadol could technically be meyabeim. it wasn't pretty having to excuse myself for 2 seconds every time there was a lashon naki in the gemara. but eventually, when you've been clean through nezikim, your natural interest in these subjects will help you learn halacha lema'aseh, in the nitty gritty details. which for many people can merely become an incomprehensible slur of unintelligible yeshivish (chalos shem yibbum??? to schaff a chalos shem yibbum???)

I would like to add a very important yesod

The Mishnah says in mesechtas Avos that Torah is MACHSHARTO LIYOS TZADDIK say the Chofets Chaim,

MACHSHARTO is like hechser kaylim the words of Torah kasher a person

I am not a michanech but I wanted to write the words of the Heilige chofets Chaim

It is said that when the yeshive of Pressburg learned Mesechtas Gittin there was not one get in the whole town, which had in it thousands of families.

So learning certain Mesechtos guards the person!
