

LeKuved the Yahrzeit of the Rebbe R' Zisha Zy"a

If the Rebbe R' Zisha were alive today, I think that most of the GYEs here would be Anipoli chassidim...

There's his famous saying: Every night after Krias Shema She'Al HaMittah he would say, "Ribbono Shel Oilam, from now I'll be ehrlich... Really. Ay, yesterday I said the same thing?

But this time I really mean it!".

And then there's the fact that he threw all of his needs on the RBS"O: Like for instance the way he used to say, "RBS"O, Zisha is Hingerig". Or as some say, it was more subtle than that, and he used to say, "RBS"O, Zisha dankt Dir far de appetit (Zisha thanks You for giving me an appetite).

And on a lighter note, here's a story that is brought in sefer Otzar Yisroel (by R' Yisroel Rozenzweig, who brought only authentic stories):

The Rebbitzen of the Rebbe R' Zisha is said to have been not such an easy froi.

The Rebbe R' Zisha said, "I used to comfort myself with the fact that the Gemara says that one who suffers from a difficult wife, is spared the travails of Gehinnom.

"But one day, it seemed too much to bear. So I said, 'RBS"O, Lummer zehn this Gehinnom business, it can't be all that bad....

"So he showed me!

"And I went back to my wife and I told her, 'Sheltz Veiter! Sheltz Veiter! (Ask Bards for a translation if you need one -I can't write the translation here, as it will lose all the original flavor

-Sorry Anglos!)"

It's Erev Shabbos -I've gotta run!

Zechiso Yugein Uleini, V'al kol Yisrael....OOOMAIN!!!

A Lechtigen Shabbos Briderlech!

'Luzer
