

Duvid Chaim, I should have joined in LONG ago...

Hi there,

I just wanted to say that I called in for the last 20 minutes today, and I wish I would have done so sooner. I was in Israel last year, so it just wasn't feasible for me in terms of time or cost, but now that I'm back in America I am able to. I love the style of the call, as well as your brutal honesty (which is not presented in a brutal manner at all!). I plan to call in as often as I can now (assuming the free calling thing works out), and maybe I'll even speak up sometime :D

Thanks so much Duvid Chaim!
