R' Tzadok Hacoen in Tzidkas Hatzadik 111 says the following:

[This is really hard for me but I have to translate.]

"In the wake of Moshiach (the last period before Moshiach comes) the main avoda/tikun is ONLY to take the good out FROM the bad. Only in the place (situation) of the y'h and the powerful rise of sin, only from there will Hashem redeem us specifically through Teshuva (As opposed to not sinning in the first place). As it says Moshiach will come in a generation that's all guilty.

AND A PERSON LIKE THAT (that by nature is pulled to sin and has to pull himself out by Teshuva) IS FROM “THE PART OF MOSHIACH” meaning that his soul belongs to a special group that have the power to facilitate the Geulah. As we find that Dovid Hamelech (who was the root of Moshiach) raised up the banner/power of Teshuva.

As it is known that the neshomoh of klal Yisroel (which is made up of all the individual neshomos) it's head is very high but it's feet go down to she'ol r"l. And before Moshiach the souls are from the feet, where there is a great force of evil and the y'h.

AND THEREFORE ONLY A GENERATION OF SOULS LIKE THAT, WILL MERIT MOSHIACH AS CHAZAL SAID "VERY GOOD" REFERS TO THE Y'H.

Also Moshiach himself comes from such a source. As is known from the "Midrash Hane'elam" in Parshas Vayera, about the daughters of Lot and Lot, that they are the ROOT OF THE POWER OF THE Y'H, AND OUT FROM THERE GREW THE TREE/FAMILY OF MOSHIACH.

THIS IS BECAUSE, THAT'S THE OPITOME OF THE COMPLETE PERFECTION THAT WILL BE WHEN MOSHIACH COMES - THAT THE VERY ROOT OF BAD WILL BE TURNED IN TO GOOD, FOR THAT IS THE MEANING OF "THE SLAUGHTERING OF THE Y'H" THAT IS MENTIONED IN GEMOROH SUKAH"

R' Tzadok is telling us that it's our job to bring Moshiach and no Tzadik could ever do the job. Hashem entrusted us with this mission. He believes in us! In fact the Chidushei Harim says (I heard it from R' Tvi Meir, I don't have the source) that in order to be able to go so low and come out of it, you have to be from a very high source. This shouldn't be surprising to anyone around here. Just look at the powerful retzonos and yearning of the holy holy people here.

THIS RATZON IS YOU! THAT'S WHO YOU ARE! Yes you have some very very low weaknesses. But that's part of the great shlichus that Hashem gave you. The shlichus to bring Moshiach.

THE SHLI'ACH OF HASHEM TO BRING MOSHIACH! THAT'S WHO YOU ARE!

ONE OF THE VERY FEW NESHOMOS THAT ARE ABLE TO SURVIVE AND EVEN FIGHT BACK AMID SUCH OVERWHELMING TUMAH! THAT'S WHO YOU ARE!

We were given a job that's almost impossible, even for us. How do we pull it off? That was the question that the Jews asked in the Midbar. How can we wage war against mighty giants? The answer that Yehoshua and Kalev gave was HASHEM IS WITH US, HAVE NO FEAR!!! Just do your job, and have no fear. They are only as strong as you believe them to be, but in reality ?? ??? ??????. If you realize that Hashem is with you the giants will crumble!

(please see reply #4 for the rest of R' Tzadok's words)

Rosh Hashana is the time that we report to Hashem on our mission. He assesses the situation and decides what supplies and tools to give us for the coming year. NOW IS THE TIME TO CRY OUR HEARTS OUT "HASHEM, GIVE ME EMUNAH! GIVE ME BITACHON! GIVE ME DA'AS! GIVE ME CLARITY! GIVE ME SIYATA DISHMAYA! GIVE ME HATZLOCHOH! HELP ME DO TESHUVA SHELEIMA WITHOUT FALLING ANYMORE!"

KISIVA VACHASIMA TOVA TO EVERYONE!

The mishna in Pirkei Avos says, ?? ????? ????? ????? ?? ?????? ????? ?????? ?? ??? ??????

I recently understood the meaning of this mishna for the first time and I just have to share it with you. The Mishna is telling us one of the greatest yesodos of life. You see, what happens is most people do not learn a lot of Torah. So when someone does, he is liable to think that everyone else is acting natural and he is acting unnatural. He can then figure that it wouldn't be a bad idea to take a brake and act normal for a bit. From there on it's all downhill.

So the mishna is telling us, ??? ?????? -this is you! You are a holy yid that was created to get close to Hashem. If you try to do something else it won't work because it's not you. It would be like trying to knock a nail in with a radio.

I think there's a tremendous lesson for us over here. Sometimes we think, "Let me just get rid of this insanity so I can get back to normal life" But it won't work! We were created to get closer and closer to Hashem and we can't stop in the middle! It just can't work because it's not the way we were created. We are Hashem's shlichim to bring Moshiach and we can't stop in the middle!

Oy Yoi Yoi Gevald is this True!

So much, much needed chizuk!

Gonna Print it out, so that I keep on reminding myself of this great points.

If we look back at History nishmas Moshiach & Big Neshomos always came from a Dark Place like Dovid Hamelech was thought to be a Mamzer at first.

Yehuda & Tomor, Reb Akiva, & many more.

Reb Tzodok Hachohen Hagodoil M'Echov speaks about all the above in great length & the reason is that big neshomes & everything Holy comes from the Darkest places, is because the Satan would get in the way & wouldn't let it happen.

So Hashem brings theses Neshamos & Yeshuos from places the Satan wouldn't dream that something so Holy is hidden under the smut.

[But only] in this world do we see the Neshomos as getting lower and lower. But then, when the tikun is accomplished it will be to the good. (This means that it will be revealed that these are the highest neshomos and not the lowest. Like we brought from the Chidushei Harim. A friend of mine told me today that R' Nachman says this many times)

.....And the lowest neshomoh [from the bottom of the feet] will suddenly become the HEAD. As it says in the Gemoroh in Pesachim that in Olam Ha'emes things seem upside down; the high ones on bottom and the low ones on top!

SO THAT'S WHO YOU ARE! Pleased to meet you!

Battleworn

That was beautiful

So much of Reb Tzadok relates to us

as well as his Rebbe the Mei Hashiloach these are things we need to hear especially in the generation we live in

Battleworn,

Gevaaaldik!!!!

I just read thru what you wrote from the Tzidkas Hatzadik (111) that R' Guard sent in the daily Chizuk Email. Thank you so much!

This is really good stuff and really mechazek me. Whenever I see something from Reb Tzadok Hakohen, my eyes and ears purk up, and since I don't have the sefer, and I'm not sure I'd be able to follow it unless it was translated into English, I very much appreciate your post.

I wish there were a thread with excerpts from the Tzidkas Hatzadik; I think it would help me.

I once heard the following as well: "Reb Tzadok HaCohen (i.e. Tzidkas Hatzadik) writes that if a person sees that he is having an especially difficult time in controlling a certain trait or refraining from a certain kind of action, he should not view this as a sign of weakness on his part. Rather, he should view it as an indication from Heaven that it is precisely in this area that he has the greatest potential for growth. The difficulties he is experiencing are a means for him to apply greater effort in overcoming the challenge, and developing that trait in which he, in fact, has the greatest potential to grow."

Battleworn,

I have been a way for a while. Just read your threads. WOW! WOW!!! WOW!!! I will have to reread after R"H to absorb more. for the sake of the tzibur, please keep up these posts.

Nishmas,

Welcome aboard! Please stick around.

I have such a list in my notebook. Now that you asked, I will try to get to work and post it.

Yes, this can be found in #49 and #181. This yesod changed my life. I live by this yesod. In fact, to date, I consider shemras eynayim to be my biggest accomplishments. I went from a terrible pn addict (together with worse stuff) to aversions to any sort of sight. I try with all my might to not even get a first glance of anything untzeniyus. I am careful with the way I walk (head down). And I can tell you that this did not come naturally. I used to be a hardcore addict with no shame. When you learn not to settle for "nebach, that's who I am" and realize that davka in this area you can rise to the top, then davka in this area you can rise. I daven everyday for Hashem to protect me from pritzus. The trick is to take one step at a time, and know that there is another step ahead for you to climb.

Keep climbing! Keep growing.

Kesiva vechisma tova,

Yaakov

Thank you again, for the inspiration. Just a few days ago, when struggling, I cried out if after all that climbing,falling,reaching out again, we finally reach someplace? (remember? I was told theres no summit) Here is living proof there is. Thank you!

Excellent!! Thanks for your welcome, and thanks for your chizuk. You are an inspiration for me, and I feel I'm in the same boat as you, but it sounds like you're way ahead of me, which is o.k., because it keeps me looking forward instead of backward.

What a beautiful devar torah, There is a story told about a great chosid (sorry don't remember the name) Who was also a great business man.

He would tell about himself that his Gaava protected him from sinning, whenever he'd find himself in a compromising situation he would say to himself, "how could I such a great and respected chasid fall so low".

All the more so if this the value of our neshamos to Hashem!!!!

There is a midrash that says that the zechus of the kohein gadol to enter into the kodosh hakadoshim was because of the bris, May we be zoche to merit to enter in to the mikdosh with all of our averos turned into mitzvos veruach hatumah aavir min haaretz!!!

That was one of the most encouraging things I have ever read, and I have read a lot on the subject.

Thans a lot Battleworn. I think I might start learning R' Tzadok a little more seriously. Till now (for me) it was one of those seforim which I'd use to look something up, or hear a quote from, but not a sefer to learn on a constant basis.

I think you just changed that.
