almost forgot my thank you...

Thank you hashem for running wate. My shower really would not have beenenjoyable possible without it.

THANK YOU HASHEM THAT GYE IS BACK!!!!!!!

The reason we wash our hands after touching our shoes (a.k.a. tzoiah) would still be nogeiah.

The water we drink would probably not be as cold and clean.

We would be either bathing in a freezing natural body of water or in a tub who's water quality at the end of the baths gave way to the expression "don't throw the baby out with the bath water" (some say that's not where it came from ubber al tzad zeh).

Throughout the world more than 780 million people lack access to clean water. Every 21 seconds, a child dies from a water-related illness.*

Thank you Hashem for giving me running water.

*according to a quick google visit

Thank you Hashem for GYE

I don't do the 12 steps

I don't religiously read the handbook

I don't do the phone conferences

I haven't spoken to my therapist in close to 6 weeks

tomorrow, however, through the forum's help, I will be up to day 28

[Seemingly, I have some of the correct attitudes to change; not all, but some; thanks!]

thank you to the fellow who said that during davening you should just say "please Hashem, help me."

I caught myself thinkin that several times over Shabbos (although personal requests on Shabbos....).
