what are you doing that's making you sink? can you do something else?

daily chizul emails are wonderful and you can read them more than once a day if you have to.

But the main point, take it one day at a time. H..I, take it one hour at a time if you're sinking that fast. And if you happen to fall (c'v) get up and try again.

You're a champ. Keep it up!

What to think about when you are about to fall? There are so many things.. The problem is you do not have th ability to think when you are falling.

Hashem gave man a brain and an ever. There is only enough blood for one. When its in the ever the brain shuts off.

Do not let it get to that point.

Emmesdic,

Welcome back to the forum!

What's your plan? Raw self control? Killer shmiras eynayim? Persistent tfilla? Giving up lust?

Read through the tools. Trying really hard isn't going to work. You need some new weapons, and you need a plan.

Keep us in the loop.

Alex

Nu, so how are you doing? Dig deep. Ask Hashem to save you from the deepest place where you hang out with Him. Get out of the physical place that you're in. Go for a walk. If that's not an option, go take a cold shower. If that's not an option, stick your fingers in a light socket. OY, no. that's not a good one. Find the funny thread and read through them. Check out Zmiras Shabbat's thread. It's usually a rip.

DO something different.

We can't talk you into staying clean. But we can root for you.

Hang in there.

i am with you 1daat

there is so much more enjoyable functions in life

why not start making three column list whereby you list planned activitys:

column 1: write the activity, for example, "walking for 10 minutes", "calling a brother", etc...

column 2: BEFORE you do the activity, in a grade from 1-100 where 1 is the least, and 100 is the top, grade the amount of predictable pleasure.

column 3: AFTER you have done the activity, write down the actual pleasure recieved in a grade from 1-100 , you will be surprised.

there is so so so much pleasurable enjoyable activity in life, it just gets all doomed by thinking, because that one lusty pleasure i have to stop therefore its all black, its just not true
