and then the thread will be left with this post and Holy Yid's post which will then look silly and we will then remove them.

And hatzlocho rabba in this struggle.

How can you be a gaon if you can't figure out how to remove a thread?
i thought i was the "gaon" ....., well not for the same reasons you called yourself a gaon :

BTW, I have no idea how to do it, but maybe ask a moderator.

I'm back!

I'm not a gaon. I just respect them. :-)
