

Falling after Succos!

Posted by lostatsea - 23 Oct 2011 22:55

I am single and getting close to the big 30. Over the hag I bumped into the last girl I dated. She was a lawyer, frum, from a lovely family... perfect match. She had dumped me a few months ago because I was not as educated as she was. Seeing her again made me very depressed. So much so that I could not even do any of the hakafo's. I just stayed home the whole hag sleeping. Once Shabbos was over I started looking for a relief. I found it, unfortunately.

I had been clean since before yom kippur, but last night to today has been a nightmare. I have been glued to the computer... :'(

Do you always feel the need to resort to the computer when your life gets a little stressed? Or is this a one time thing?
