Shalom everyone---

Because of all your messages of tikvah and chazak, I made it through a night without giving in to my yetzer and watching porn. Toda. It's been a big problem, off and on, for the past ten years or so. Trying so hard to stop. Not knowing what the matter was with me. Feeling my dear soul at times fly out of me, diminished, weakened and crushed. But understanding more and more why I was born Jewish and how deeply our tradition speaks to me and to this condition of escaping and giving over power to false illusions, gods, golden calves, pornographic images and all kinds of shtuyot . . . And so very far away, in a very dark place, when I waste my energy lusting after images that rob me of my humanity and joy. I have come to embrace that we all have different missions and purposes in this life. I want to do mine to the best of my ability---but know I have to stop chasing after these false images, harness my energies, focus my love and care on my true bashert---and you and GYE are a big part of that. Zay Gezunt to you all!

i started when i was 48.i'm now 53. i'm not perfect (yet) but i'm a LOT freeer than i was 4 years ago.it's possible - your success depends on many different factors - i can't tell you that you will be perfect, because i'm not there myself (yet). what i CAN tell you is that with a lot of hard work on your part, and people to speak to who understand you (only addicts can truly understand other addicts), you will definitely come a long way.but dont try it alone.if you want to speak to me, pm me and i'll get back to you

Welcome dear B,

I cannot say that I am older than both you and Jack together, cuz that would make me over 100 - and I'm not - yet. But yes I am older than either of you, and B"H after decades of hopeless misery I found successful direction at GYE. So please stick around. First and foremost read the GYE handbook. There has been nothing like it since creation. It has changed the lives of many, and can do the same for you.

Well, you got us good. Joke's on us, of course, welcoming you as a brother that you made us believe you were.

You don't belong here, your lifestyle is an abomination, and just because you know a yiddish word or two doesn't mean you won't burn in Hell.

What I am refering to is the fact that you're a lying hound, and not that you are gay.

There are plenty support groups out there who cater to openly gay people who want to control and enjoy lust.

This place is not one of them.

Your gay advocacy rhetoric falls on deaf ears here, and I hope noone engages you in a useless debate.

Zei geshtumzufleen, you goyishe shmutz you,

Mottel

I actually heard somewhere, that why exactly did Hashem create the world in days months years. Time is divided up, in many many intervals. And the answer is, (one of them)

You can always start fresh

Welcome to GYE

B'ezrat Hashem this should be a new beginning for you

He is busy promoting gay agenda around the forum in a sneaky and dishonest way. Are the moderators asleep at the wheel or do we welcome all opinions and life styles here, like a bunch of spineless libs?!

[u]Moderator's Note[/u]: Sorry, I just noticed the reports regarding the original post, and I made some appropriate edits. You are correct that opinions and agendas that are against the Torah are not permitted on the GYE forum].

Thank you O'Mottel for telling it like it is.

From the SA (Sexaholics Anonymous) Handbook: [emphasis mine]

What is Sexual Sobriety?

In defining sobriety, we do not speak for those outside of Sexaholics Anonymous. Sexual sobriety for sexaholics of our type means no sex with ourselves and no sex with any partner other than the spouse. In SA's sobriety definition, the term "spouse" refers to one's partner in a marriage between a man and a woman. Sexual sobriety also means progressive freedom from the many forms of sexual thinking and stimulation and lust that enter our lives. This freedom is found by remaining sober and by using our Twelve Steps and Twelve Traditions in our daily lives.
