for the former: R' Shlomo Freifeld was fond of relating about a certain non-Jewish reporter -Dorothy Thompson - who wrote for a newspaper and was sent to Europe to cover the Zionist Congress and the Agudah Convention (Knessiah Gedola). She went to the Zionist Congress and she also went to the Knessia, but she had to dress up as a man to gain entry.

She reported that at the Zionist Congress she saw the Jewish intellect. At the Agudah Knessia she saw the Jewish G-d.

for the latter (or ladder): talk to Pidaini
