ok,

here is a interesting thing that happened on friday.

I broke my no internet TV show kabala on thursday at the cost of $100 to r' meir baal hanes.

Whatever.

so I caught up on the programs which I had fallen behind on, and was left wanting more.

So I looked up this creepy program which I had heard about and found 5 episodes available.

so I watched 3 (I stayed 1.5 hours late in office) and left exhilarated creeped entranced and full of regret

I decided that be what may I would not watch on friday.

so I wrote a Kabala with a $200 knas not to watch anything till monday.

comes friday morning i'm itching to watch

frothing at the mouth

tickeling in my heart

panting in my pantaloons

inhaling through my nasal passages

I WANT TO WATCH

so I reached out to a few of the faithful

and it helped

and I didn't watch

and at like 3:30 pm

in walks...

My wife and kids!

who NEVER hardly ever come to my office.

my wife does not approve of internet or tv

i would probably have been caught with my pants down (figuratively)

THANK YOU HASHEM

I have extended my kabala until wednesday

I hope to maybe make it tv free till the end of my job ....

great to hear!

keep it up!

When you extend kabbalah on Wednesday to end of job (when is that?), include 18.00 for me to reb meir baal hanes if you don't make it; 36.00 if you do.
