it goes like this, a guy with a lisp wanted sugar frosted cereal for his kids. being that he was super-frum, he didn't want to say he is buying Quaker cereal, because Quaker is a religious sect (of sorts). so instead he said he wants Shabbos Oats. being that he had a lisp it came out as Shabbos Oath.

p.s. if you eat it with 1% milk it is a lot healthier. if you chop some bananas in it's even yummiier.

Kiyeh Ree

we had a northern oynks meweting on shabbos and talked about kings and clean faces and then prayed.

hashem is my right hand and my left and everything else

being clean is good

Chai"K Yaa"r

In the lap of the woods: Possibly referring to

A. Rabbi Michel Twerski's song "The Forest".

B. Rabbi Meir Uri Gottesman's book "The Amazing Lumberjack".
