WELCOME s y! It's nice to have you with us! Have you read the handbook? It can help you determine where you are holding, and what strategies to try. Give 'em a try and see how it goes. It also helps to post about your problems. There is a big caring chevra here. Many of us have experiences to share that can be helpful.

So post away, you are in the right place!

Hello s y

Nice to meet you. Tell us your story, chances are there are a lot of people in similar situations as you.

Welcome to the family!
