Hi all.

I was active in GYE for a while a few years ago, without much success. Needless to say, my problems didn't volunteer to go away - quite the contrary. Now I am back and really looking forward to succeeding!

Hi Under Welcome back . Most problems that humans have dont just dissolve by themselves usually they call for a solution. As you said the problem didnt volunteer to go away. Have you tried something that didnt work ? Do you have a plan of action that in your opinion is going to work ? Wishing you Hatzlacha in your journey.

Welcome

understand you are not simply back- you are back as a more committed individual. Life by your admission has taught you that you need to take this more seriously.

Sounds like you are really ready!

Best of Luck! I respect you for your humbleness and bold decision.
