Hi guys,

Just wanted to post to these forums and get some feedback. I wouldn't exactly call what I'm going through a "struggle". I'm not really trying to stop; I'm just not in that frame of mind.

I still think there's some value in coming forward and saying that. Maybe..

Many of mine are worthless and kedushah has many more years here and he has tremendous sobriety behind him.

you have over 2000 posts more than kedusha so your haskama may have more street cred

Ah, but you have my sincere respect, for whatever little that's worth!

Helps my ego, which sadly, doesn't need any help.
