No GYE after 9PM for ME

Posted by Strugglingtomakeit - 04 Sep 2015 21:41

I started this on my original post but wanted to hear from others who may not have seen it before. I made a resolve to not go on GYE after 9 PM. I find that i am more vulnerable at night, and that reading the forum will sometimes depending on what it surrounds, will arouse my mind and lead to the "bad" things. So I took a resolve on myself to stay away at night, so far its working. Before i would be on the forum, i don't know if i was on to become aroused while reading or it just happened and then i would fall. I hoping to Keep this current streak going right now I'm at 9 days my longest in a while.
