

Thought of Updating= Fail

A while back i wrote a topic titled "no gye after 9pm" of course, even though i did this it didn't help i still continued to fall. But i have come to a new conclusion, the constant thought about updating has led me to think about inappropriate things and down to a fall. so i've been letting it go until i get a reminder email. Now i'm not saying this is the only time i fall, but it does make it hard sometimes.

All that thought on i have to update reminds me of dirty pics. this has been haunting me for a while:(

Can I ask you. Do you really think it's thinking about GYE that's making you fall? Really and honestly? You wouldn't say you fall because maybe, you enjoy it? Because it gives you a feeling nothing else gives you?

I mean presumably you came to GYE because you were acting out. Now you're on GYE but you still act out. So logic would say that there's some other reason you act out and GYE has not made it any better or any worse.

OK, can I ask you. Do you really think it's thinking about the update part that brings you to the thoughts which lead to a fall? Really and honestly? You wouldn't say you fall because maybe deep down (at the time) it gives you a feeling nothing else gives you?

I mean presumably you came to GYE because you were acting out. Now you're on GYE but you still act out. So logic would say that there's some other reason you act out and thinking about the update part on GYE has not made it any better or any worse.

The fact that you continue to act out even after you joined GYE indicates that the cause is not updating on GYE but something else entirely, some underlying cause. Until that cause is identified and appropriate action is taken, nothing will change, you'll stay in the muck. Let me be absolutely frank with you - YOU DESERVE BETTER!!!

If you don't want to update on GYE, I'd be more than happy to talk to you about it over the phone, private message me and we'll arrange something.
