

my story

Posted by cleanmind1 - 17 Jan 2016 18:33

Hello my name is Shlomo, and when I was a freshman, a kid got into me into talking dirty online, and I got in trouble. I then veered off in gay porn, even though I am straight and know it is forbidden by Torah.

I am 19 and a senior now, and I have VCF on my laptop, Baruch HaShem.

I am currently doing better, because I am seeing a life coach.

Welcome,

Your recovery should continue with hatzlachah.

Much Hatzlocha to you. It is great you are doing something now before this addiction drags you into hell.

Good to hear. We have things in common. My name is also Shlomo and I'm 20 years old, also I lust mainly after men. Keep it up! How does your life coach help you? Is he a life coach for SSA?
