

many years of suffering!

Posted by gyen2015 - 24 Jan 2016 22:23

I'm 30 years old with a family. Used the taphsik method and it helped for almost 2 month... and then I had no choice and brook the shvoa.

It's uncomfortable what do I do next??

Check cordnoys signature, and try join his daily call

I feel for you, I'm also afraid myself of relying solely on the Taphsic idea for 2 reasons

Can I trust myself? No

It means I'm assuming I'll be meeting be YH in the ring, and I'd rather not, so...

Share a little more about your story in general and people may be able to relate to your story with advice and what worked for them.

Also see cordnoy and markz's signatures, advice, input and posts. They have a wealth of wisdom and experience.

Welcome to GYE.

The GYE Handbook is a great place to start.

The link is below.

Welcome.

The expression "no choice" is a bit confusing to me. Do you mind explaining what you mean by that?

I would like to chime in on the no choice thing also. I know that for me I have no choice, I am powerless over lust. It's not a decision on my part.

Welcome to GYE! You've come to the right place as many people have been helped here. A good place to start is the GYE Handbook as well as become an active participant in the forums. Breaking out of isolation and expressing yourself is a huge step towards recovery!

Welcome! Read the handbook. Keep posting. Taphsic is only one tool. Maybe it's time to try something else.
