WELCOME!

how do you define new?

Joined after 11am?

Joined this week?

Joined this month?

Joined this year?

This century?

Would you not be able to relate to a guy here that was praying in 1915?

Welcome to GYE.

Congratulations on your first post

It'st great

Anyway, I hope someone new does post but in the meantime tell us a bit more about yourself.
Your history of struggling etc.

I'm the new me, but I'm old, real old, but every day is truly new.
Try the emoticons, they're fun!

I'm not new exactly, but still looking for answers. If you're looking for new people, maybe go to their threads to meet them and hear their stories. I don't know your age or if you're married, but here are a few..

There's lots more out there, and a hebrew/yidish forum if you like that

What exactly are you looking for help with?

We're all new because everyday is a new day. Take it slow and find what works for you. Maybe start by reading some more on the forum. You can get a good feel for the site like that.

Welcome

Welcome! Here's some mind-blowing, philosophical mumbo-jumbo for ya: We're all new here! Even the guys with years of sobriety behind them! We take this challenge day-by-day, so you're never really an old dog (and you're never really learning new tricks either).

Edit: Woops, Abd297 beat me to it with his post. I should have read before I said that. But, it
