I think you are making all this up. I have been on line for the last two days looking for kangaroo life and Yitzchak and rivka jdate, and they do not exist.

I see that our esteemed Admor/Admin edited the original post. Maybe he changed the names of the sites to keep curious members out of trouble.

Hmmmm....

Now I've been Google searchin' the beginnin' of his post.

Sun.....nope, that wasn't it.

Car....but which one? There are so many models.

Bat.....the animal or the baseball? Perhaps a combination.

Sew....Nothing there that perked my interest....wait, is that my wife, or her mother?

I give up!

I'll stick to words with four letters.

Thanx guys.

I feel better that I haave your support, honestly I ammm a bit offended by some of the comments that were pposted.

I just fell again, and I after a few days clean, I fell again and watched and jerked off.

How many times have I promised myself, this wont happen again.

and yet I fall again and again and again.

I felt like giving up
